Introduction and Purpose

This Policy describes the College's duties under current copyright legislation and clarifies individual user responsibilities.

The College currently holds licences through the Copyright Licence Agency (CLA), Educational Recording Agency (ERA), NLA Licence and Performing Rights Society (PRS).

The Policy describes the college position on protection of intellectual property and avoiding infringement of third party owner rights.

Scope

The Policy covers all materials, as defined by the Copyright Designs and Patent Act 1988 (as amended) which may be used for learning, teaching, administration or management and any other aspect of college work, irrespective of their form or whether in print, digital format, on the virtual learning environment, personal computers, laptops or other mobile devices.

This Policy is concerned with issues relating to the use of third party material. Ownership of copyright in materials created by members of staff and students is covered by the Intellectual Property Code (including Patents).

This Policy does not specifically cover use of the computer network, software and hardware which is covered under other college policy including the IT Acceptable Use Policy and IT Infrastructure Policy.

All members of staff, students, visitors and contractors to the college are required to adhere to this Policy.

Responsibilities

The College

Recognises that copyright is a legal and moral right and that copyright holders are entitled to fair protection and compensation for the work they produce

Recognises the value of its own copyright material and will take necessary action to protect intellectual property rights invested in it or in its members of staff and students. Ownership of materials created by members of staff who develop materials for learning and teaching purposes and within the scope of their employment rests with the college.

States that responsibility for adhering to the requirements of copyright licences and legislation rests wholly with individual members of staff or contractor.

Undertakes to ensure that all members of staff, students and contractors are made aware of their responsibilities under copyright legislation and potential disciplinary actions that may be taken should an individual breach these responsibilities

Will ensure that all staff, students and contractors are adequately trained, supported and advised as is necessary to ensure that each individual can operate effectively within the scope of copyright licences and legislation

Will ensure that any changes to copyright legislation or to the terms and conditions of copyright licences are communicated to staff, students and contractors and further training provided as required

Will seek to use copyright free resources, wherever possible and assist staff to source these resources as required.

Staff and Contractors

All staff and contractors are required to comply with copyright legislation and licences and for familiarising themselves with this Policy

Staff and contractors should ensure they understand the requirements of copyright and how this impacts on their work and should engage with training and support provided by the college

Infringements of copyright legislation or licences by an individual may result in legal action against the individual, or the college. The College considers breach of copyright to be a serious offence and may take disciplinary action where this occurs.

Understand that the individual member of staff or contractor is responsible for ensuring that the correct permissions have been obtained before reproducing any copyrighted work.

Understand that all materials on the college website must be used with permission of the rights holder(s).

College Licences

The College holds the undernoted licences:

- Copyright Licence Agency (CLA) Licence including Newspaper (NLA) Licence
- Educational Recording Agency (ERA) Licence
- PPL Licence
- Clickview Licence

Additional licences must be applied for by staff as required. This may include licences for electronic books and licences for use of proprietary DVD recordings.

Protecting Intellectual Property

The college will take steps to protect its intellectual property. A copyright statement will be used on all published material in any form, in the form of:

© West Lothian College. All rights reserved

Copyright and Equalities

The College will ensure that materials are accessible to those with specific needs in line with the disability exception is contained in Sections 31A to 31F of the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1998, available at

<https://www.copyrightuser.org/understand/exceptions/disability/>

Records of licences and permissions

Where permission or licence to reproduce has been obtained, a record should be retained for the life of the permission or licence.

Training, Support and Advice

Staff should always seek advice and clarification before using copyrighted work. Advice and support can be sought through the Learning Resource Centre of the College.

The College Learning Resource Centre is the first contact for all queries relating to copyright and licencing. The Learning Resource Centre will also provide advice and support relating to materials made available through the virtual learning environment and through open educational resources.

The Learning Resource Centre can signpost various copyright materials that can be used in the creation of learning and teaching resource.

Staff will be offered training to update knowledge and understanding relating to copyright law and are expected to engage with this training. Some training may be mandatory as a result of changes to copyright law or changes to licences.

Complaints Handling

Where a member of staff is accused of copyright infringement they should contact the identified college officer who will investigate the claim and respond to the complaint.

Where the complaint is about student(s) infringing copyright they should contact their key tutor in the first instance. Cases will be referred to the identified college officer who will deal with the complaint.

Copyright complaints will be handled separately to plagiarism claims which will be dealt with under the Student Positive Behaviour and Disciplinary Procedure.

Evaluation and Review

The performance of this Policy will be reported on and reviewed by the College Senior Team and the Board of Governors.

The Policy will be monitored on an on-going basis and formally reviewed every three years.

Equality Impact Assessment

Before carrying out an EIA, you should familiarise yourself with the College's EIA Policy Statement and Guidance, along with further information and resources which are available on SharePoint.

EIA covers strategies, policies, procedures, plans, provisions, criteria, functions, practices and activities, including decisions and the delivery of services, but will be referred to hereinafter as 'policy/practice'.
